

Practice Overview Ceridian

Ceridian Practice

Fully implementing and receiving value from your investment in Ceridian is critical. Wise Consulting brings an added dimension of support for your Ceridian Human Resource and Payroll technical and staffing needs.

Whether your organization is new to Ceridian or you have been a customer for years, partnering with Wise Consulting will help fulfill your vision of achieving great results in HR and Payroll. With our unparalleled knowledge of the Ceridian solutions, we bring a unique perspective, practical solutions and a proven approach.

Experience

Wise Consulting Associates has provided support for Ceridian's product suite since our founding in 1996.

As both consultants and practitioners, Wise Consulting has the most Ceridian experience in the industry. Our dedicated team has assisted many organizations to fully understand system capabilities, clarify misconceptions, and identify technical or procedural solutions to effectively meet your requirements.

Services

Wise Consulting's services in support of Ceridian include the following:

- Onsite system and process review
- Business process reengineering for payroll
- Ceridian self-service analysis, implementation, and change management support
- Interface design and development
- Current and historical employee data conversion
- IT/DBA support
- Crystal / EasyAsk report development
- Post implementation review and analysis and documentation
- Time & Labor Management selection, implementation and integration services
- Talent Management solutions
- Total payroll outsourcing
- Total compensation statements
- Payroll reconciliation and other special projects